Fire Chief Report: Chief Vander Pol reported on the following:

- Captain Chad Crandall accepted a Deputy Chief position with Granite Falls Fire creating an opening here. Captain interviews were held earlier today and an announcement will be made shortly.
- In long term planning, we put in interest with Harbor View Medical Paramedic Program that starts in the fall.

- Today we had a Secondary Trauma Workshop for behavioral health. It was encouraging to see so many Marysville Fire personnel attending.
- The All Hands Meeting was on February 13, 2024, the PowerPoint presentation was sent out to everyone. There was a lot of good discussion during and following with the theme of working together to build a future and solving problems with a culture of trust and transparency.
- Introduced the thought of having a sub-committee on behavioral health at with County Fire Chiefs.
- Spoke at the Historical Society Monday night.
- Went to Cedar Brooke Lodge on Friday with the Seattle Fire Department Executive Leadership Academy for a presentation on the hospitality industry and how it correlates to public safety.

Operations Report: Chief Cole reported on the following:

- We had 1,336 calls in January, which is up 47 calls from this time last year.
- Sean Anderson has officially completed his paramedic training including his required ten ride-alongs.
- Our three member attending the Bellingham Paramedic Program are doing very well.
- The Nurse Navigator Program went live on February 15, 2024. 75% of the calls being diverted to the nurse line are being kicked back to 911, this is higher than we would like to see. A group has been assigned to fine tune the determinate types of calls being diverted.
- We are still working on some final paperwork and retainage for the admin remodel. Key Mechanical is working on the HVAC systems, the outside systems still have not arrived. We have filed a warranty claim for the bubbling paint on the outside of the building.
- We received the replacement boat yesterday; we are still waiting on the trailer.
